Club Chairmanship Leads to New Hobby

By NANCY LONG

Estelle Barrus took a seemingly small chairmanship in the Arcadia Woman's Club two years ago, Indian Affairs. It has now engulfed most all of her days and time and energy. A young adult, Kee Tso, from the Kabato Navajo Reservation in Arizona was the house guest of the Barruses for six months. Estelle is presently obtaining old textbooks from the Los Angeles Board of Education and locally collected books to be used by the individuals attending trailer schools in the Papago Indian villages in Arizona.

Estelle attended the three day pow-wow in Saugus presented by the American Indian Tribes, Inc. She saw the Hopi, Navajo, Apache, Pueblo, Papago, and Sioux Tribes give individual tribal dances.

The outstanding Towa Oringway group which means, Village Dancers of the Southwest, did specialty numbers. Over 300 Indians came to this pow-wow of which 100 arrived from out of California.

Estelle is heading the collecting of quilting materials and a sewing machine for the Navajos. She acquires more knowledge each day about Indian lore and has learned that tribes have different religions, social structures, and prophecies. However a common problem is the ever present, tremendous need for education among most tribes, Estelle reports.

Indian Land Needs Supported by Woman's Club

At a recent meeting, the Verdugo District of the California Federation of Women's Clubs passed a resolution urging prompt action on bills before the House of Representatives and the Senate which will release free lands for use by the Mission Indians near San Bernardino.

Mrs. N. K. Barrus, Indian Affairs Chairman of the District and a member of the Arcadia Woman's Club, has further stated that copies of the resolution will be sent to the Department of the Interior and to Representatives James A. Haley and Senator Thomas H. Kuchel i nWashington.

Mrs. Barrus states that the land in question is a parcel of nearly 8000 acres, known as the Mission Reserve, adjacent to Pala, and as early as 1902, a commission was formed by the Department of the Interior to explore the area and make a recommendation. At that time, and in countless correspondence later, it was recommended that the land in question be annexed to the smaller acreage of the existing reservation, which had, for many years, been inadequte to support its Indian population.

Mrs. Barrus, and members of the Arcadia Woman's Club, hope that their action will, in some way, hasten a decision for our impoverished Indians in the Southwest.

CITIZEN OF THE MONTH AWARD BEING MADE TO MRS. LUCY WYSS

CIVITAN AWARD

'SPIRIT OF '76' GOING STRONG IN MRS. LUCY I. WYSS, 85

Tribune Staff Writer

The Arcadia Civitan club honored one of Arcadia's best known senior citizens last Thursday at the weekly luncheon meeting held at the Flamingo Hotel. Honored was Mrs. Lucy I. Wyss, 131½ Bonita, presented with the Civitan Citizen of the Month award by committee chairman Ray Peckham.

Mrs. Wyss, originally from Cleveland, came to California 49 years ago, and settled permanently in Arcadia in 1940. She almost immediately became active in many social, educational, philanthropic, religious and civic organizations, and she usually became president, secretary or treasurer during her tenure.

In her fifteen years as a member of the Arcadia Woman's Club, she amassed the remarkable total of thirteen years of perfect attendance, never once missing the twice monthly meetings.

She was also active in the local P.T.A. that she is now an honorary life member of that organization.

Reverend Charles Phillips, pastor of the Arcadia Presbyterian Church, presented these and many more citations of why Mrs. Wyss, known to many as "Aunt Lucy," is so deserving of the award she received. Phillips noted that Mrs. Wyss has been a member of the church since her arrival here, that she has been an outstanding contributor, a regular attendant of services and usually early in arriving, most active in the church nursery, and that she had been elected deacon so often she is now a permanent church deacon.

Mrs. Wyss, 85 years young, has an outstanding record of service with the Red Cross, and has been a canvasser for the Community Chest every year. She refers to herself as the spirit of '76, an appropriate year for her to be born in, as she is well read in both local and national political affairs.

When questioned about her secret of successful longevity, she remarked that "I stay young by working hard, and trying my best to help other people. I hope to live to be one hundred.'

At the moment she is secretary for five clubs, and treasurer for a number of others. She will canvass for the Community Chest campaign this year as usual.

Mrs. Wyss says she has no intention of slowing down. She says, "Why should I? Things ought to be easier now. It's the first eighty years that are the hardest."

Woman's Club Speaker Praises Federation for Foreign Good Will

The General Federation of Women's Clubs were commended for organizing clubs in foreign countries by Correspondent John Morley, principal speaker at last Wednesday's regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

These clubs, he said, promote good will and a friendly feeling between members of different nationalities.

Mr. Morley discussed conditions in Cuba, the Congo and the Berlin crisis. He stressed positive thinking and deplored the "scary headlines and unfortunate exaggerations." He also praised the Civil Defense and SAC, explaining briefly how the latter operated.

Introductions at the head table included Mrs. Ray A. Young, chairman of the International and Literature Departments; Mmes. Carlton Eckermann, John Richardson, Esther Hanna, and Lucy Wyss.

Also introduced were Mrs. Jess Balser, chairman of the Status of Women and Community Improvement Committee, and Mrs. Bert Schaar, Federation Secretary, as well as Verdugo District Chairmen Mmes. William Adams, E. J. Fuerst, William S. Orr, Nelson K. Barrus and James Cogswell.

New members introduced by Mrs. Raymond Kennett, membership chairman, were Mmes. L. Leroy Blodgett, Ray Crowder, Harry Lauber and Jack B. Mallon.

A TOTAL OF $1,000 was collected by the Community Improvement Committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club in a community-wide fund raising campaign to microfilm back copies of the Arcadia Tribune for use as reference in the Arcadia Library. Here Mrs. Jesse Belser, chairman, presents a $608.50 check to Homer Fletcher, head librarian, the amount collected from the recent turkey dinner held at the Woman's Club and from sales of opportunities on a 21-inch color television set. Looking on as the presentation is made are F. Harold Roach, Tribune publisher, and Mrs. Alp J. Fay, Woman's Club president. The other sums came from individuals, business firms and service clubs. Mrs. Belser said that while the drive is ended, Arcadians are urged to continue to support the project, which will include the filming all future copies of The Tribune, in addition to the initial phase which dips 25 years into the past to provide a complete picture and history of Arcadia. She said donations may be sent to the Arcadia Library Trust Fund, care of Homer Fletcher, librarian.
